

THREE PAID THE LAST PENALTY

Were Brothers, and They Killed Their Aged Uncle for His Money.

DIED VERY GAME

All Three Had Been Received Into the Catholic Church Since Their Conviction.

(Special by Scripps-McLae.) Danmore, N. Y., Oct. 1.—Willis, Frederick and Burton Van Vomer, three brothers aged respectively 24, 18, 22, were electrocuted in the order named in the state prison here this morning. The boys kept up their nerve till the last, but they displayed some weakness on the final parting with the death watch, who had been their most intimate associates during their confinement. Fred broke down completely and wept. Willis was allowed to go to the chair first on account of his ill health. The three executions occupied 15 minutes.

Their Last Day Yesterday the boys, who talk to each other continually from cell to cell, sent for Warren George Day. When he appeared in the corridor Burton said that they wanted to say good-bye to him and to thank him for the many kindnesses shown them since they entered Clinton prison.

"And you needn't be afraid of our making any trouble at the last moment," said Fred, the younger boy, "for we have decided to die like men."

The other brothers also assured the warden that they would not weaken, and all presented such bold fronts that the warden was much relieved. He now believes that the triple execution can be accomplished inside of twenty-five minutes and without any harrowing scenes in the death chamber. The warden considers it singularly unfortunate that when the young men are making such heroic efforts to keep up their courage to the last, the arrangement of the death cells should be such that the moment the first boy is taken out to die the others will know it. Willis and Fred occupy adjoining cells, and directly across the corridor is that occupied by Burton. Screens will be placed before each cell, and although this will prevent the first one out from being seen by the others, they cannot help but hear and know what is going on. The walk from the cells to the door of the death chamber is thirty-five feet, and from the door to the chair is scarcely three steps.

In all there will be twelve invited guests at the execution and seven prison officials. They are ravenously at both dinner and supper yesterday. Their every wish was instantly gratified. It is believed that the boys have written out statements to be made public after their deaths.

Father M. D. Charbonneau of Keeseville, who has been acting as spiritual adviser to the boys, visited them twice yesterday. After leaving the prison Father Charbonneau said:

"These young men are as strong as they ever was. They have come into the light of their own accord, have become deeply religious, and by the divine blessing they are being sustained. I have prayed with them twice and they are as devout and sincere as they are brave. You need have no fear of these boys breaking down. They will remain strong and brave to the very end."

State Electrician Edwin F. Davis put the electrical apparatus in order. Each boy will receive an initial shock of 1,800 volts, three to five amperes. The current will then be reduced to 200 volts, one ampere, and then increased up to 1,300 volts, seven or eight amperes.

ANOTHER BANK FOR EDGERTON

There is Now Talk of Establishing Another Bank in the Rock County City.

There is a movement on foot to organize another bank in Edgerton. A brother of ex-State Bank Examiner Kidd, George Doty, Dr. W. H. McCaskey, T. A. Clarke, John Mahoney and others are interested. A location is now being decided upon, a portion of the block near the U. S. hotel being looked upon favorably. A similar movement was started about two years ago by Rob Dowe and son-in-law of Stoughton, but did not materialize, owing a great deal to an unsuccessful attempt to find a favorable site in which to locate.

Marriage Licenses: The following marriage licenses have been issued by County Clerk Starr: John Fanning and Anna Manogue, both of Johnston; D. J. Monahan and Catherine Haley of Beloit; Frank Gage of Delavan and Alice B. Milford of Johnston.

ARE DEVASTATING ENTIRE DISTRICT

Inhabitants of Razlog Are Either Massacred or Driven Out From Home.

Sofia, Oct. 1.—A dispatch from the Rila monastery says that the entire population of the district of Razlog has been massacred or has fled. Three thousand women and children, fugitives from the Turkish soldiery, have arrived at Rila.

Many villages around Razlog are said to be burning. The town itself is surrounded with tents occupied by the Turkish troops, who avoid fighting, and, according to the dispatch, attack only innocent people.

Letters from Monastir say the Turkish authorities are posting a final invitation to the insurgents to return to their homes. The proclamation concludes: "Those who do not return and refuse to trust to the mercy of the imperial government will be pursued and their homes destroyed in the most severe fashion."

MANY STRIKERS WERE WOUNDED

The Police Quell Two Thousand Car Men in Buda Pesth, After a Sharp Contest.

Buda-Pesth, Oct. 1.—A sanguinary encounter between the police and striking car-men took place here today. Revolvers were used on both sides and many persons were wounded, several mortally. Fifty arrests were made. The collision was due to an attempt of the strikers, totaling about 2,000 men, to prevent non-strikers from working and to the strikers attacking the yards of the carriers.

MILITIA FOILED—NEWSPAPER ISSUED

Wife of Employee of Victor, Colo., Record Defies Troops When Office Is Raided.

Victor, Colo., Oct. 1.—The attempt of the military to suppress the Victor Record because of its sympathies with the striking miners, by arresting the entire staff was frustrated by the pluck of one woman. Mrs. Emma T. Langdon, the wife of a compositor, who was arrested, brought out the issue on time, although the office was surrounded by two troops of cavalry.

The soldiers vainly commanded the woman and her aids to desist. They pounded the doors and windows seeking to effect an entrance without actually breaking in, but Mrs. Langdon sat at her machine until she completed her work. Then she set a big display line, "A Little Battered, But Still in the Ring," locked up the forms, and turned them over to a pressman whom she had routed out of bed in a cabin away up the hills. Then, that she might enjoy the discomfort of the troopers, Mr. Langdon took a bundle of papers to Camp Goldfield and gave one to each soldier she could find.

THIRD MATCH PLAY FOR THE GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP RESUMED

Day Is Close and Hot and the Grounds Are Very Heavy.

(Special by Scripps-McLae.) Chicago, Ill., Oct. 1.—The play for the third round of the national woman's golf tournament was resumed today. Sultry weather prevailed. The grounds are very heavy owing to rain. Four pairs of players started.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES

The Farmers' and Merchants' bank at Byron, Neb., was robbed of $2,000.

John Stevens, an escaped convict from Michigan City, was captured at Marion, Ind.

Peter Paradise, a car inspector, was run over and killed by the cars at Peoria, Ill.

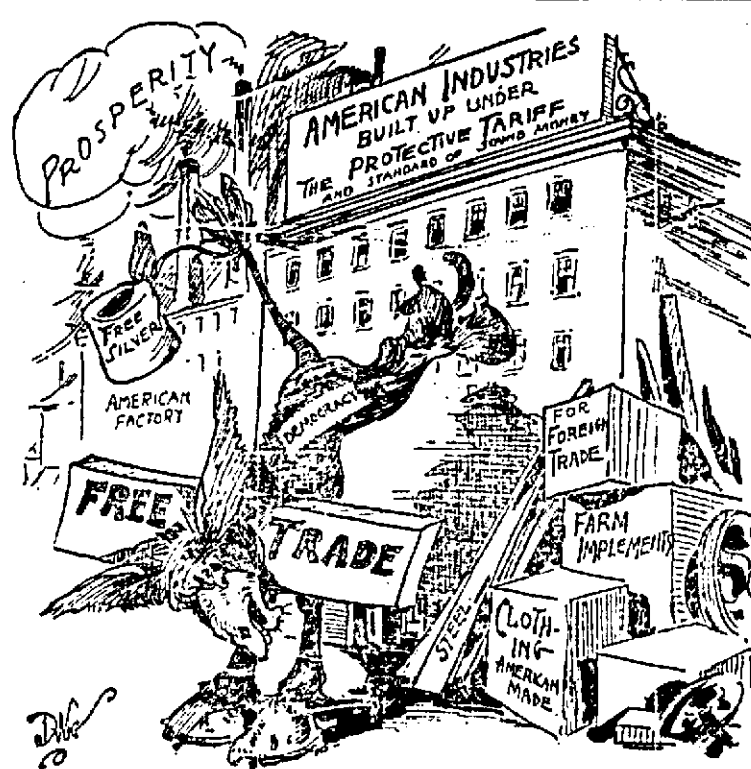

There was a heavy frost at Saratoga, N. Y., and the mercury stood at 36 at daybreak.

The whole of the province of Tarapaca, including the port of Iquique, the capital, has been declared free from bubonic plague.

The Wyoming supreme court denied the motion of Tom Horn, the stock detective, convicted of the murder of little Willie Nickell in the from mountain country, and sentenced him to be hanged Nov. 20.

In a Pennsylvania wreck at Lancaster, Pa., a car filled with Philadelphia mail was burned. The letters were mostly those of business houses and through registered mail. The contents of the car were totally destroyed.

Col. Walter B. Dutton of Racine fell and was seriously injured when passing the new public library building on his way home.

BUCHANAN WILL TRY FOR OFFICE

CLAIMS HE HAS ENOUGH VOTES TO WIN.

PARKS IS NOW IN CONTROL

He Will Elect His Own Man When the Proper Time Comes.

(Special by Scripps-McLae.) Kansas City, Oct. 1.—President Buchanan today announced that he will be a candidate for reelection for the office of president. He asserts he has forty-seven of the eighty-three votes of the convention pledged.

Parks Confident

The Parks crowd in the meantime are confident of victory and claim that they have a safe majority for Donnelly, their chosen candidate. The convention will follow the lead of which every faction is victorious.

MUNICIPAL COURT HAS BUSY MORNING

James McCulloch, of Footville, Paid Fine for Assault and Battery—Other Cases.

In municipal court this morning Judge Barle fined James McCulloch of Footville $1 and costs amounting to $4.60 upon his pleading guilty to the charge of assault and battery. He paid the fine. The complaint was filed by James Plunkett.

Billing Case Dismissed The case of the State vs. Bert Billings which sentence has been waived from time to time was this morning dismissed owing to the defendant's good conduct.

Wood Case Adjourned The case of the State vs. George Wood, charged with felony, was adjourned by Judge Sale until November 2. The civil case of Mary E. Bentley vs. Oly Ellingson and Peter Ellingson was adjourned.

JANESVILLE IS CONSIDERED BAD

State Factory Inspector Says That This City Will Be Watched in the Future.

Factory Inspector J. Henry Harback of Appleton la's of the opinion that Janesville is one of the worst towns in the country for the violation of the factory laws. That is the way he voiced his opinion of our city after having made a tour of many of the factories this morning. He found several violations of the sixteen years of age limit and some few girls and boys employed about the city will have to ask for permits before they can continue working. Three girls were found at the Lewis company this morning who blushing-ly announced that they were not sixteen, although one of them looked full ten years older. "Janesville has always been considered a good factory town," said Mr. Harback, "but from now on the factory inspector had best keep his eyes open for violations."

BAD TESTIMONY IN THE BIG TILLMAN TRIAL IN CAROLINA

Men Testify That They Saw Former Lieutenant Governor Have a Revolver.

(Special by Scripps-McLae.) Lexington, S. C., Oct. 1.—Representative Wash King the first witness in the Tillman trial today, testified that he saw a revolver in Tillman's possession the day before the killing of Gonzales.

BREAK RECORDS IN THE AUTO RACE FROM CHICAGO TO EAST

Day Clipped Off Former Records Between New York and Chicago.

(Special by Scripps-McLae.) New York, Oct. 1.—The Chicago-New York automobile run was completed this morning. The distance was covered in seventy-eight hours, a day ahead of the previous record.

AWFUL BUTCHERY REPORTED

Soldiers Pillage the Towns and Use the Torch Very Freely.

(Special by Scripps-McLae.) Constantinople, Oct. 1.—Authentic reports were received today giving horrible and unprintable excesses by Turkish troops in the Macedonian town of Sorrovi. The people of Macedonia are more aroused than ever.

Balkan Insurrection The Balkan insurrection is spreading far beyond the Bulgarian frontier. The town of Mechoma was put to the torch and the population massacred. Hot fighting between insurgents and Turks for two days past near Bachevo.

GUIDI RECALLED TO ROME BY POPE

New Methods Will Be Adopted in the Philippines Very Shortly.

Rome, Oct. 1.—The negotiations in the Philippines between the vatican and the United States government regarding the sale of the land held by the friars and the removal of the native monks from the islands have been called off by Pius X.

Monsignore Guidi, the Roman prelate sent to Manila as apostolic delegate to conduct the negotiations, has been called to Rome. It has been decided at the vatican that hereafter Philippine islands questions must be dealt with directly by the pontifical secretary of state and the government at Washington, or what is still better, through a special representative of the holy see sent to the United States from Rome.

ST. PAUL OFFICIALS WERE HERE TODAY

Annual Tour of Inspection Ends in Chicago This Evening.

The officials' special train over the St. Paul arrived at 1:35 this afternoon. There was a baggage car and two special coaches, one of them being President Earling's private car "Wisconsin." Besides the trainmen and Chinese chef there were on board: President A. J. Earling, Assistant General Manager W. J. Underwood, Superintendent Eldridge, and Messrs. Bond and Harkness of New York city. The special left Milwaukee last Saturday on the annual tour of inspection and has been to Kansas City and through the Dakotas. It came from St. Paul this morning. Only a short stop for orders was made here.

CLAIM MADE IN TREATY QUESTION

Mr. Taylor Criticises the Action of Canada in the Treaty Talk.

London, Oct. 1.—Hannals Taylor counsel for the United States concluded his argument before the Alaskan boundary commission today. He declared the construction put by the Canadians on various terms employed in the controversy was not justified by the international law, especially the reference to the general trend of the coast and the mention made of canals. Sir Edward Carson, the solicitor general, followed. He confined himself largely to arguing that the exact wording of the treaty supported the British contention.

E. D. Gordon, chairman of the town of Gordon since the town was organized, has been requested to become a candidate for the assembly.

SEND CRANKS TO A LOCK-UP

Men Who Wanted To See the President Are Being Locked Up.

Washington, Oct. 1.—Two eccentric visitors, both old men, who tried to reach the president today were headed off by the secret service guards and locked up. Gustave Behring came from Syracuse, Kan., to try to induce Mr. Roosevelt to aid him in raising funds for foreign missions. He insisted on seeing the president alone and was greatly disappointed when he found himself in a cell instead of Mr. Roosevelt's office.

John Epp, who said he was from Philadelphia, told of having had much trouble with his wife, who had caused his arrest several times. He also complained that property in Switzerland had been sold and the money withheld from him. He wanted the president to straighten out his family affairs and send to Switzerland for his money.

VON BULOW IS NOW BIG DIGNITARY

The German Chancellor is Made an Ecclesiastical Leader of His Church.

Berlin, Oct. 1.—Chancellor Von Bulow was installed as canon by the supreme chapter of the Evangelical church in the chapter house at Brandenburg today. This distinction is only conferred on noblemen and by the emperor. The appointment carries with it a salary and perquisites and is sometimes bestowed on retiring officials. No such inference, however, is drawn from Count Von Bulow's installation.

JUSTICE OF PEACE SLAIN, BODY BURIED IN BARN

L. H. Bradley of Wales, Mich., Assassinated by Unknown Incendiaries.

Port Huron, Mich., Oct. 1.—Justice L. H. Bradley of Wales was assassinated and his barn burned in an attempt to conceal the crime.

The justice, in the discharge of his duties, had made enemies who had sworn vengeance, and some of these are considered to be guilty.

Mr. Bradley returned home from a trip to Memphis late at night and while about to put his horse in the stable he was attacked. His body was later discovered in the burning ruins. Three persons are known to have made threats against Mr. Bradley, and officers are seeking them, but up to a late hour had not made any arrests.

LORD CROMER TALKED OF AS NEW COLONIAL MINISTER

Reports on the London Stock Exchange Say That He Has Been Offered Place.

(Special by Scripps-McLae.) London, Oct. 1.—It is reported on the stock exchange here that Lord Cromer, present British minister to Egypt, has accepted the colonial secretaryship.

STATE NOTES

Thomas Pipe, for many years a hardware dealer in Waupaca, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy, with liabilities of about $2,500 and assets which will realize about $600.

Louis Phillips, a mitten and glove manufacturer of Chicago, is seeking a location for his plant in Kenosha. The plant employed 150 men and will be enlarged if removed to Kenosha.

Another death from the typhoid fever epidemic at Racine was that of Rowland France, son of Mr. and Mrs. John France, formerly residents of Milwaukee, who have also another son sick with the disease.

On complaint of Game Warden Tracey of Milwaukee, Gustav Leenan was arraigned in the municipal court at Waukesha on a charge of using set lines at Pewaukee lake for fishing and was fined $10.

In the circuit court at Kenosha a divorce was granted Anna Marie Binninger from Franz C. Binninger, and the wife was given alimony and all the husband's estate. They had been married thirty years.

Rudolph Lens of Two Rivers was killed by being thrown from a horse while doing missionary work for the German Lutheran church among the Apache Indians at San Carlos, Ariz. The burial will take place at Two Rivers.

The grocery store of Joseph Perizo at Fond du Lac was almost completely destroyed by fire, the explosion of an oil tank, containing fifty gallons of oil, making it impossible for the department to conquer the flames. The loss will be about $2,000, fully covered by insurance.

Rostand's Famous Waistcoats.

Rostand, who was made an "immortal" in Paris recently, is famous for his fancy waistcoats, of which he is said to own over 100. Indeed, the French papers talk more about his var-colored garments than about his literary work.

Danced Last Evening: A number of friends of Fred Karsch of Spring Brook surprised him on his home coming last evening and a pleasant social time was spent in dancing and other amusements.

SLAIN BY AN EXPRESS TRAIN

Six Men Are the Victims of a Chicago Trolley Accident—Nine Injured.

TRAIN STRUCK IT

Fifty-Second Avenue Was the Scene of the Accident—All Track Employees.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 1.—Five men were killed and nine injured, two seriously, early last evening, when the Wisconsin Central "limited," west bound, running at high speed, crashed into and demolished a Forty-eighth avenue trolley car at the Fifty-second avenue crossing of the Illinois Central. The trolley car was squarely across the railroad tracks when the fast train flashed into sight. There was no time for the doomed passengers to escape. The warning cry of the motorman, struggling with brakes that refused to hold on the wet rails, came too late and in a moment the ponderous locomotive and its heavy train had plunged through and over the frail trolley car, leaving death and wreck in its wake. The trolley car was approaching from the south on its way to the city. The occupants, nearly all of whom were connected with the Harlem race track, were discussing the day's races. A slow passenger train toward the city was passing a the car approached the railroad track, the motorman slackening speed to allow the train to pull across.

When the track was cleared he started ahead at full speed, unconscious of the approach of the swift express train. Conductor Enright saw the headlight of the locomotive and shouted a warning. John Luney, who was seated at the end of the car, repeated the cry, and, with the conductor jumped to the street. The motorman sought to stop the car, but the slippery rails prevented the brakes from being effective.

With a sickening crash the heavy engine struck the car near the center, cutting it completely in two and hurling passengers and wreckage to either side. Screams and groans filled the air as the survivors hurried to the aid of their stricken companions.

On the opposite side of the track was another trolley car, which had not attempted to cross. The crowd and passengers of this car hastened to aid the injured.

The express train stopped and its crew joined in the work of rescue. Quick calls for help were sent and patrol wagons and ambulances from the Lawndale and other police stations hurried to the spot.

Four bodies were taken from the wreck, with the crushed and senseless form of Joe William, a Jockey, who a few hours before had narrowly escaped riding to victory on Carat in the last race at Harlem. William died in the ambulance on the way to the hospital and the body was taken to the county morgue.

Tries in Vain to Stop. Motorman Giltenev declared the brakes would not work and he could not stop his car when he saw the danger.

"The track seemed clear when I started to cross," he said. "When I saw the headlight I sought to stop the car. The brakes would not work and before I knew it the crash came."

CHINESE-AMERICAN TREATY SETTLED

Minister Conger Hopes to Make the Present Negotiations Permanent.

Pekin, Oct. 1.—A tentative agreement has been reached regarding the Chinese-American commercial treaty between United States Minister Conger and the Chinese foreign office. Minister Conger is most sanguine that the treaty provisions already agreed upon will be embodied in the permanent treaty to be signed Oct. 10.

The tentative draft is most satisfactory from the American point of view and indeed is probably the most liberal in the matter of trade concessions that has yet been granted by the Chinese government. It differs considerably from the Anglo-Chinese treaty in that it contains 2 1/2 per cent. trade concession above that provided for in the Anglo-Chinese tariff agreement.

The new treaty draft also secures all claimed rights to foreign missionaries under American protection, provides for the punishment of Chinese officials in the event of foreigners under American protection, or Americans, being maltreated, and protects trademarks, patents and copyrights.

Perhaps the most important concession granted to the treaty is the revision for the long looked for opening of the ports of An-Tung and

Football Coaches Busy

Forming New Plays to Conform With Altered Regulations.
How Changes Affect
the Game: Checkerboard Replaces Gridiron.

As the result of the changes made in the football rules for this season coaches are at present doing much thinking to invent plays calculated to prove as effective as some of the battering ram behind the line formations which have been barred. Opinions as to just what the effect of the new rules will have on the game are varied. Some maintain that they are a step backward because they circumscribe the play. These take the position that with only three men back of the line there necessarily cannot be a great variety of formations.

Others insist that there will result more open and spectacular plays, as the quarterback can now run with the ball.

The chief objection to the rules seems to be that they will allow a greater opportunity for disputes with the umpire. It will be impossible, critics say, for the referee to decide whether or not the runner goes five yards outside of the place where the ball was downed, as the rules prescribe.

Professor Dennis of the rules committee says that there probably are minor defects which will become apparent before the season is over, but that the main purpose of the new rules will have been accomplished—the elimination of mass plays and the liability provided in so doing he crosses such line at least five yards from the point where the snapper back put the ball in play.

As it was feared that the referee, under whose province this run by the quarter back is placed, would have some difficulty in telling at a glance whether the distance out from the center was five yards it was determined to suggest certain changes in marking.

As the field is now marked off with white lines every five yards parallel to the goal line, for measuring the five yards to be gained in three downs, under the new rules it is proposed that through the middle section of the field—that is, between the two twenty-five yard lines—additional white lines five yards apart, parallel to the side lines, should be marked in order to assist the referee in thus determining whether the quarter back runs under the rules or not. Thus, while the football field still remains a gridiron, the central section of it now resembles a checkerboard, and the accompanying diagram shows exactly how the field should be marked.

As the field does not divide into five yard spaces evenly it is wise to run the first line through the middle point of the field and then mark off the five yards on each side from that middle line.

According to the new rules the old style of mass play is restricted to the sections between the two twenty-five yard lines and the goals. In the middle section of the gridiron (which now, however, is best described by the term checkerboard) seven men must be kept on the rush line, thus making necessary a comparatively open style of game.

The enforced alteration of the style of play for different parts of the field should lessen the liability to injury sometimes charged to the steady pounding of one style only.

The second general change has been the incorporation of rules that in some cases greatly increase the penalty for unfair tactics and in others do away with all excuses for indulgence in certain rough plays, at the same time providing for less offensive armament, as, for instance, in the case of the head gear.

To make sure that the wishes of the committee are carried out in this matter the duties of the linesman have to injury lessened. This will be brought about by the enforced alteration of the style of play for different portions of the field.

It is interesting to note the result of the investigations made by Professor E. G. Dexter of the University of Illinois of accidents in college football last year.

From statistics obtained from sixty leading colleges and universities, extending over a period from 1893 to 1902, inclusive, Professor Dexter states that while in this period 22,766 students played the game but 654 were injured sufficiently to interfere with their college duties, and eight of these being injured permanently and only three killed. Less than 3 per cent were injured so as to keep them from work. From accident insurance statistics and newspaper tables Professor Dexter finds that the number injured in other forms of sport, as horseback riding, swimming and even baseball, is larger than those hurt in football.

A certain alteration in the football rules for the season of 1903 provides that when the ball is put in play in the scrimmage at any point within the center section of the field—that is, the portion bounded by the two twenty-five and the two side lines—at least seven of the players of the side having the ball must be on the line of scrimmage and also that the player who first receives the ball, commonly known as the quarter back, within the above mentioned territory may carry it forward beyond the line of scrimmage

"THE PAWNBROKERS" HAVE GOOD HOUSE

Farce-Comedy With No Plot But
Plenty of Specialties, Pleased Audience Last Night.

McCabe and Mack and Mazie Trumbull, assisted by the Knight brothers, eccentric dancers and singers, Louise Carver, twentieth century fashion plate with the kangaroo walk, the Columbia quartette, and a good looking chorus, amused a good sized audience in "The Irish Pawnbrokers" at the Myers Grand last evening.

The farce-comedy has no plot, to speak of, but there were plenty of ludicrous situations resulting from some love letters addressed to Levi Murphy's son, falling into the hands of the parent (James L. McCabe). Some of the dialogue between McCabe and Mack, particularly in the first act, was wearisome, but on the whole the comedy work was pleasing and effective. The work of Marie Dockman who swings a chair in her teeth while dancing and tumbling was greeted with applause. The costumes were new and better than those ordinarily seen in attractions of the kind.

Scrofula, salt rheum, erysipelas and other distressing diseases yield quickly and permanently to the cleansing, purifying power of Burdock Blood Bitters.

Bodily pain loses its terror if you've a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil in the house. Instant relief in cases of burns, cuts, sprains, accidents of any sort.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry cures specific for dysentery, diarrhoea and summer complaint. "I had a running, itching sore on my leg. Suffered tortures. Doan's ointment took away the burning and itching instantly and quickly effected permanent cure." C. W. Lenhart, Bowling Green, O.

EAST PORTER

East Porter, Sept. 30.—Every one seems to appreciate the beautiful weather we are having.

Corn cutting and threshing are taking up the farmer's attention at present.

First number of the Fulton Lecture course, Oct. 16th. Dr. James Kirtley will lecture. A wonderful treat is promised.

A temperance rally was held at the Fulton church last Sunday evening which was largely attended and quite a number of young people signed the pledge. Mr. Frank Sayre, Sr., had the meeting in charge and gave a very able talk on the subject. We hope we may still be able to listen to his good counsel for years to come. Very few at four score are so capable.

Every one is glad to have our old pastor the Rev. B. T. Martin now of Sedalia, Mo., with us again for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Saxby spent last Sunday in Janesville with relatives.

A reception was given for Mr. B. F. Martin and wife at the home of Mr. F. Sayre, Jr., last Tuesday evening and a most happy reunion it was with the old pastor and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boothroyd went to Janesville last Friday to see their son, Clair, who is attending the high school.

Misses Mae and Viola Marsden spent Saturday and Sunday with their friends Ethyle and Francis Gardiner.

Mr. Chas. Raymond sang in the Presbyterian church in Janesville on Sunday last. We hear that they are very desirous that he should sing there right along. While his talent as a singer would command a call to most any large place, still we are loath to let him go from Fulton.

Road commissioner Gillies fixed up one half mile of road in very good shape last week in District No. 8. From the number of boxes of old hens that went by last Saturday we imagine that egg will be a good price next season.

Mrs. J. McCarthy's sons are hauling lumber for her new house which is in the course of erection. Bentler & Seefeld are doing the work.

The lecture course committee are around selling tickets and are meeting with very good success. All the numbers come from the Central Lyceum Bureau this year and our little town and vicinity is supporting as good a lecture course as is had in many large cities and should receive the patronage of every wide awake person.

SUMNER

Sumner, Sept. 23.—While hunting Sunday about a mile from his home Charley Brooks, accidentally discharged his gun into his left forearm. The wound was very deep and painful, but Charley made a desperate effort and succeeded in getting home. Finding his folks had gone away he started to the neighbors. Mrs. John Hettis for help, but his strength gave away and before reaching the house Mr. Hettis' hired man recognized Charley and ran to rescue him. Charley was immediately taken to the office of Dr. Brewer and Caswell. It was found necessary to amputate the arm at the elbow. Charley has the sympathy of the entire community.

'Sunday about thirty-five people with baskets well filled gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Klement to do justice for her birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Klement drove away to church about 9 o'clock and as they were nearing home noticed the carriages and concluded it was a surprise party. Even more so when she entered the house and discovered dinner was already and waiting.

The Grand Trunk earnings for the third week in September increased $63,257.

WILD WEST SHOW EMPLOYEES PAID

Lawyers Who Represent Claims, Meet
After Signing of Order by Judge Dunwiddie.

Lone Star May, who dazzled Spring Brook residents with her wonderful shooting, the bearded and bewhiskered cowboys, the cowboys, bristling with shooting irons, the unwashed Indians, and other performers of the great wild west show which entertained Janesville for so many days this summer, may now receive a portion, anyway, of their hard earned salary which has been tied up since the disagreements which stranded the aggregation, for Judge Dunwiddie has signed an order that all these claims shall be paid in full by the receiver. Other claims besides those due for labor will be paid out of the balance of the fund.

Yesterday afternoon a meeting of the lawyers interested in the claims filed against the show, was held and an agreement arrived at concerning their payment.

The petition was drawn up earlier in the week and taken to Jefferson, where Judge Dunwiddie was holding court, by Stanley Tallman. The judge signed the petition as stated and the meeting yesterday was the result.

After leaving Janesville this summer under the management of the Erie Printing company, the show went to Appleton and neighboring towns. It met with continual bad luck and finally became again financially embarrassed at Ishpeming, Michigan. Here its checkered career for the season of 1903 came to an end and the management took the entire concern back to Erie, Pennsylvania, where it will be kept during the winter.

A PIECE OF FOLLY.

Chicago bands refused to participate in the Centennial parade, because the government Marine band, which was not unionized, had been secured for the occasion. The fact was overlooked that the government band is in the government employ, and for this very good reason could not belong to a union. The Chicago Chronicle which has the habit of saying what it means, sizes up the situation when it says:

"The height of trade union absurdity has been reached by the union musicians of Chicago. They refused to join the centennial parade last night because the parade committee refused to cancel its contract with the United States Marine band, which it had engaged for the concert and public demonstration Thursday night."

The union musicians of Chicago object to the Marine band because it has not been "unionized." They would not blow a blast or toot in celebration of Chicago's centennial because a non-union band had been engaged to play the last day of the celebration.

The Marine band is not "unionized" for the very good reason that it is a band in the military service of the United States and is composed of enlisted men—enlisted musicians. Strike societies have no place in the military or naval service of the United States, because a strike by men sworn into this service is simply mutiny.

Undoubtedly the Chicago bands had a right to refuse to play last night because the Marine band is going to play tomorrow. So the blacksmiths might refuse to parade if a military organization with an enlisted blacksmith were to be in the parade. And all unionists might refuse to parade if a crack regiment of the United States were to participate in any of the demonstrations and because the regiment was not "unionized."

People have a right to make spectacles of themselves in a variety of ways, but it is not always expedient, for them to do so. It is generally advisable for organizations as well as for individuals to maintain a reputation for sanity and a reasonable measure of public spirit.

The Marine band is a fine body of musicians. It is a credit to the government and the people of the United States. It is not a body of lepers to be shunned because it is not and cannot be "unionized." It is a body of which the people of all parts of the country and of all walks in life can be proud. It should be a matter of gratification that this superb organization of musicians can be and is to be present and grace the demonstrations in honor of the city's centennial.

It is cause for humiliation and shame that the influence of a strike spirit as arrogant and tyrannical toward independent manhood as it is barbarous and lawless in the method it inspires should be strong enough to impel Chicago musicians to make fools of themselves and mar the celebration because a band of national reputation is to participate.

Organized labor seems bent on doing everything it can think of, from threatening to mob the city council to leaving the parade to march without music, to bring discredit upon the nevertheless city government at a time when all citizens should be especially upon their good behavior."

MILLER CASE ENDED.

President Roosevelt has not disappointed the people in dealing with the labor question. The case of Miller, employed in the government printing office, has excited a good deal of interest, and more or less speculation as to what the president would do in the matter on his return to Washington.

Local labor unions, in various parts of the country, have sent in petitions demanding Miller's removal.

and the question of politics has entered freely into the discussion. Last Tuesday a committee composed of Samuel Gompers, James Duncan, John Mitchell, James O'Connell, and Frank Morrison, representing the American Federation of Labor, called on the president, and after discussing the situation the following ultimatum was given:

"As regards the Miller case, I have little to add to what I have already said. In dealing with it I ask you to remember that I am dealing purely with the relation of the government to its employees. I must govern my action by the laws of the land, which I am sworn to administer, and which differentiate any case in which the government of the United States is a party from all other cases whatsoever."

"These laws are enacted for the benefit of the whole people, and cannot and must not be construed as permitting discrimination against some of the people. I am president of all the people of the United States without regard to creed, color, birthplace, occupation, or social conditions. My aim is to do equal and exact justice as among them all."

"In the employment and dismissal of men in the government service I can no more recognize the fact that a man does or does not belong to a union as being for or against him than I can recognize the fact that he is a Protestant, Catholic, a Jew or a Gentile as being for or against him."

"In the communications sent me by various labor organizations protesting against the retention of Miller in the government printing office, the grounds alleged are twofold: (1) That he is a nonunion man; (2) that he is not personally fit."

"The question of his personal fitness is one to be settled in the routine of administrative detail, and cannot be allowed to conflict with or to complicate the larger question of governmental discrimination for or against him or any other man because he is or is not a member of a union."

"This is the only question now before me for decision, and as to this my decision is final."

This ruling establishes the principle of the open shop, so far as government employees are concerned, and more than this it recognizes the supremacy of law and common justice.

It will lead to revolution of method, so far as government work is concerned, a inaugurated a reform that has long been needed. Modern machinery will be installed, and the people will get the worth of their money from the product of government shops.

The ruling should do more than this, for it establishes a wholesome precedent for employees in every line of business.

THE TEXTILE WORKERS.

The textile workers of Philadelphia numbering 112,000, went out on a strike the first of June, and have just returned to work at the old scale of wages. The losses to employers is estimated at $12,000,000, and to employees at $8,000,000.

More than this the factories that have been closed down have been deprived of their season's business, which has been diverted to other channels, and as a result many of them will not be able to run full time during the winter.

The strike referred to was largely sympathetic and results have proved that it was destitute of ordinary business sense. Organized labor is being taught some useful lessons in the hard school of experience.

The state administration is very solicitous that the revenue from hunter's licenses be kept up to the standard of last year, and so a circular letter has been issued to county officials to dispose of as many as possible. The game warden is a necessary evil, and he is expected to make himself numerous in a campaign year. The people pay the tax and the laborer is worthy of his hire. Step up gentlemen and buy your licenses.

President Mills, of the U-Pin-It Hook and Eye Co., is meeting with much encouragement in placing the stock of his company and it now looks as though Janesville would secure the industry. Mr. Mills is highly endorsed and he is not engaged in a fake enterprise. His factory will be doing business as soon as machinery is installed. His proposition is worthy of thoughtful investigation.

One hundred cases of strawberries have recently been shipped from Sparta. This shipment represents the second crop and is a strong argument in favor of Wisconsin's soil and climate. If the governor would devote a little time to the advantages of the state, he might find a few things to commend.

Our trade with the Philippines for the month of May was over $5,000,000. The largest in the history of the islands. This in spite of the fact that the Dingley tariff imposes a tax of 75 per cent. If the new possessions ever enjoy reciprocal trade relations, the trade will be vastly increased.

Beloit college places a ban upon the marriage of students, and Mr. Buck, who was a popular senior, is barred from admission because of his marriage to an Iowa girl last summer. The ruling is considered a little harsh by students, and will not add to the popularity of the college.

The Soo company has been granted a respite of eight days, and another effort will be made to save the property. There must be a good deal of hot air in a corporation capitalized for $117,000,000, when money is lacking to pay wages and buy hay for horses.

PRESS COMMENT.

Chicago Inter Ocean: A Chicago man was shot at, robbed, drenched and arrested simply because he attempted to act as a peacemaker. Find the moral.

St. Louis Globe Democrat: It was proved, during the last Cleveland administration that a democratic tariff is not a free trade production, but a botched mixture without name in any tongue. Democratic promises on tariffs are of no value.

Ashland Press: The traffic in American helmsmen, has placed about two hundred millions of dollars in European coffers. The loss of the helmsmen is all right, but the dollars rightfully belong here.

Oshkosh Northwestern: If Governor La Follette would show more zeal in the enforcement of the laws that already exist the people might have a greater amount of confidence in his protestations of being so anxious to protect their rights.

Kenosha News: Kenosha may be a little off in some departments of municipal administration, but she can "point with pride" to the record made by the water company under municipal ownership, anyway.

St. Louis Republic: The fact that there's grafting in Indian Territory should not encourage other grafters to go higher. The fact is that the "ground floor" operators, already on the scene, will "skin" any ordinary grafter along with the Indians.

Chicago Record Herald: Detroit school children have struck for the purpose of enforcing the reinstatement of a discharged teacher. If they win it will be interesting to watch the teachers' hustle to get sold with Bub and Sis.

Washington Post: The University of Chicago has sent a corps of professors to make explorations in the vicinity of Babylon. President Harper will remain at home and confine his digging to Mr. Rockefeller.

Chicago News: With frauds and bribery charges flying about, Postmaster General Payne thought he knew what trouble was, but he had yet to learn of Civil Service Commissioner Greene's heartless plan to put 70,000 postmasters under the city service regulations.

Appleton Post: If Mr. Lincoln with his all absorbing patriotism, had been afflicted with the temperament and characteristics which Mr. La Follette possesses, we doubt if there is an admirer, or a friend of the latter, however ardent, who would say that the Union would not have gone to pieces in the '60. Of course no great emergency exists or can arise in Wisconsin, but nevertheless the usefulness of the republican party in this state is necessarily greatly abridged under its Mob Tries to Lynch Preacher. Ventura, Cal., Oct. 1.—A. F. Allen, a wealthy Free Methodist minister of Santa Paula, is under arrest charged by a Mrs. Larsen with assaulting her 11-year-old daughter. Late last night Allen was also arrested on a warrant charging attempted assault on May Richardson, aged 9. Mrs. Fannie Richardson, the child's mother, swore to the complaint. Upon Allen's arraignment this afternoon Judge Titus dismissed this charge, but held him on the Larsen writ.

At midnight last night a mob attempted to lynch Allen. A rope was secured and the mob marched to the city jail and demanded the prisoner. The determined stand of the officers prevented the mob from breaking in the jail door. The mob was not dispersed until 4 o'clock this morning. Allen is 60 years of age and married. Brantford, Ont., Oct. 1.—The body of Irene Cole, aged 9, daughter of Peter Cole, expert for the Massey-Harris company, was found on the river bank last night. Her clothing was torn to shreds and saturated with blood. The child had been assaulted and strangled. A man seen loitering in the neighborhood is suspected and almost the entire city is searching for the murder.

Speyer & Co. Make Conditions. Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 1.—It is asserted here that one of the conditions on which Speyer & Co. consented to postpone the sale of the securities of the subsidiary companies of the Consolidated Lake Superior companies was that $250,000 due workmen at the Soo be paid. Compliance with this and other conditions will secure an extension of the loan for ninety days from Oct. 8.

Some "Has Beens." There is a Sixth avenue shopkeeper who has displayed in his window a bundle of quill pens, a horse pistol, a pair of roller skates and a safety bicycle. He calls this job lot his museum of "has beens."—New York Press.

THE ART STUDY TO CHANGE QUARTERS

COMPANY TAKES A TEN-YEAR LEASE OF LOWER COTTON MILL.

WILL INCREASE ITS EMPLOYES

Started Moving Today—Will Be Settled in a Week—Rush of Orders.

On account of many orders, lack of room in present quarters, the Art Study company has taken a ten years lease of the lower cotton mill and the departments are being removed to the new building today.

Overflow of Orders. Enlarged quarters were found absolutely necessary by President Phillips because of the overflow of orders causing a pressing need for more space. Between sixty and seventy-five men are all that can well be accommodated in the present building and other facilities for doing good work are also found lacking at the North River street plant.

Best to Move Now. A change to more commodious quarters had been contemplated for some time by Mr. Phillips but he had not intended to move just at this period. The necessity of partially closing down the factory because of the strike and the partial interruption of the work, made the moving to another location easier so it was decided to take the mill at Monterey.

Start Work Immediately. By Monday morning new help will be secured to take the places of the men that left—about a dozen in all—and it is hoped that some of the departments will be partially settled so that work can begin.

Will Increase Help. Orders are so far behind that by another week the number of help employed will amount to 150 hands, and by that time the regular work in all departments of the concern will be started and the plant will soon be again working to its full capacity.

FOOTBALL GOOD AT UNIVERSITY

practice Last Night Was Very Snappy, and Varsity Team Made Good Gains.

The work of the Wisconsin football men Wednesday afternoon was practically the same as that of Tuesday. In fifteen minutes of scrimmage the varsity scored three touchdowns on the scrubs, who, while at times able to hold for downs, could not stop the general advance of the first team. Perry was in at full on the varsity part of the time, but was displaced toward the last of the scrimmage by Rosenthal, who, in the first trial of his position, did good work. Joe Fogg was unable to play in his regular quarterback position because of a lame leg and Schreiber was put in his place. An amusing incident of the practice was when Dick Remp, the big varsity center, tackled Schreiber, who had been transferred from the scrubs to the varsity, and prevented him from making a long run on the kickoff. This evening the men were given signal practice in the gymnasium.

G. A. R. TO OBSERVE ITS 21ST BIRTHDAY

Local Post Has Engaged Theatre for Entertainment, Wednesday, October 21.

The twenty-first anniversary of the founding of the Janesville Post, No. 20, of the G. A. R. department of Wisconsin, occurs on October 21 and suitable preparations for its observance are to be made at a meeting to be held in the hall at eight o'clock tomorrow evening. The Myers Grand theatre has been engaged for the evening and it is planned to give a musical and literary entertainment in which local talent, assisted perhaps by one or two artists, from out side, will participate.

MADISON MAN TO OPEN STORE HERE

John Nichols, of Capital City, Has Leased Lower Floor of Phoebe Block.

The two stores in the Phoebe block, opposite the postoffice, which have recently been vacated by the Schmidley sisters and the Janesville Music Co., have been leased of Capt. Piny Norcross for five years by John Nichols of Madison. Contractors are remodeling the entire lower floor and when the work is finished the new occupant will open a five and ten-cent and general dry goods store.

LIFTS HEAVY SAFE

E. T. Fish Places Large Iron Box in Parker Bank Co.

One of the largest safes in the city was placed in the Parker Bank Co. office on the second floor of their building on South Main street yesterday. It is no small undertaking to lift a weight of 6100 lbs. without injury to the article itself or to the property, yet this was accomplished by E. T. Fish with the apparent ease of a dry-goods box. Mr. Fish makes a specialty of handling heavy safes, machinery, and other out-of-ordinary articles. He has a most complete outfit for this class of work and has charge of some large engineering work. His reputation extends beyond Janesville and he frequently calls for out of town contracts.

SEPTEMBER WAS PLEASANT MONTH

CROPS MATURED IN SPITE OF COOL NIGHTS.

FROSTS ARE EXPECTED SOON

Humidity During the Month Just Past Was Not Excessive—Much Rainfall.

The month of September was in many ways a far more pleasant one than some of its predecessors as far as the temperature is concerned. Crops have matured fairly well, considering the frequent cool nights on which frost threatened with the temperature hovering near the freezing point. Now and then there was light frost in low places, but little damage was done to the crops. However, the time is not far distant when frost will make its appearance and the garden produce still in the ground may be ruined to some extent.

The Humidity. . . . . The humidity during September was not distressing. The warm rays of old Sol occasionally made the atmosphere somewhat unpleasant. The hottest day was Saturday the 12th, when the thermometer reached 81 degrees. The warm spell was broken on the following Monday by a heavy rainstorm at which time 1.58 inches of water fell, the greatest precipitation of one day during the month. The maximum temperature of the month was 77 degrees. At that time great fears were entertained that throughout the whole state that a severe frost would come and ruin the crops. Although fields in some parts of the commonwealth were victims of the frost, Rock county suffered little damage.

Precipitation. The total precipitation for September was 2.86 inches. This is considered to be quite a full of water for this time of the year. The heaviest rain fell Monday, the 14th, when it came down in torrents. The total precipitation was 1.58 inches. The lightest rainfall registered was on the 10th and 27th, on which days only .01 inches fell.

USUAL POSTERS FOR FRESHMEN

University Sophomores Open the Year with Their Usual Fun—Some Hazing.

A pasteur and hazing war is on at the university at Madison between the sophomores and freshmen. Each night hundreds of second-year men have been parading the streets and terrorizing the many freshmen who arrived in the city this week. They have been doing a lot of yelling and not a few of the freshmen members have escaped them. Several have been thrown into the lake and among them were two freshmen members of the football squad. This has aroused the anger of the football men.

No arrests have been made. The students have done little or no damage and no property has been destroyed. Several of the first-year men have contracted colds as a result of being ducked into the cold waters of Lake Mendota, but have otherwise escaped unhurt.

In the first convocation of the students in library hall Friday afternoon, President Van Hise will speak, urging that the hazing be discontinued.

PRACTICE GAMES SHOW UP WELL

FOOTBALL ENTHUSIASTS LOOK FORWARD TO GAME, SATURDAY.

INTERFERENCE VERY GOOD

Local Team Expect To Give Whitewater a Very Hard Tussle.

Outside of studies football is the chief topic of conversation at the high school and the game with Whitewater Saturday afternoon is creating unusual interest. The lineup may be changed somewhat before the opening kick off, but the final arrangement will be given out Friday.

Boys Confident. Attendance at the practice each afternoon has been good and the enthusiasm continues high. The interference is beginning to get in some good work and the first eleven has been practicing scrimmage plays during the week with a number picked out for a second team, although there is no regular second team organization.

Practice on Washington St. All of the practice has been carried on at the field on Washington street. Yesterday afternoon, it was planned to play on one of the vacant lots near the water works but it was found that the hay had not yet been cut so that the boys could not get on the lot and were obliged to return to the old field. The chief objection to the latter, is on account of its distance from the center of town, the Jackson street ground being considerably nearer the school building.

Interest Taken. Bills have been printed and placed in many of the stores and local interest in the first game of the season is becoming general.

Coming Attractions.

CALENDAR AT MYERS GRAND

Oct. 5, 6, 7.—Flora de Voss in Re-

Marion Granger, who plays the part of Miss Schuyler in the coming production of Willard Spenser's comedy opera, "Miss Bob White," is an Ann Arbor, Michigan girl, pretty vivacious and full of life. During her college days she spent a goodly portion of her time developing her biceps with basket ball, and it was well she did, as the following will show.

Going home from a late rehearsal at the Park theatre, Philadelphia, recently, she was accosted by a man in a side street near her hotel, who asked her for 10 cents to get something to eat. She opened her portfolio, and was about to pick out the coin requested when the leg was rudely wrenched from her grasp and a hand on her throat caused her to divine that something was doing. She was told to shut up and not make a noise or she would be killed and as her whisper was by this time pretty well contracted she thought she wouldn't say anything, but she was thinking and thinking a lot, and the subject of her thoughts was this, in that bag is some money but that I do not care much about, but—Great Scott! my diamond studded brooch given me for the athletic championship, and here I am being held up by a paltry man, and with this she doubled up her fist and gave Mr. Robber a solar plexus that would have done credit to Fitzsimmons, and with the disengaged hand she grabbed her bag and ran before her assailant could recover from his astonishment. She was yards away and sprinting for all she was worth. She reached a well lighted part of the street, and glanced back; the man was nowhere in sight. At this stage of the game it would be the one to have a good cry, but she didn't—she just went to the nearest drug store and had an ice cream soda.

Grace George opened her season in "Pretty Peggy" last Monday at the Montauk Theatre, Brooklyn. A single performance had been given the preceding Friday at New Rochelle, and at both presentations the house was completely sold out.

William A. Brady, under whose direction Wilton Lackaye is to star in and research have been applied "The Pit," and Channing Pollock, to the minutest details of even the who adapted the play from Frank furniture and upholsteries.

Norris' novel, announce the receipt of the following self explanatory letter: "I have just finished reading your drama of 'The Pit' and both Mrs. Frank Norris and myself, as mother, are immensely pleased with the character of Jadin. It is faithful to the original in the book and faithful to the original man, the character was drawn from life. I think the closing scene of the first act, where Corbett discovers the scattered rose leaves, very good, and the whole piece is as striking a dramatization as I have ever seen. Both Mrs. Frank Norris and myself wish for a box the first night of The Pit's presentation in Chicago. Gertrude G. Norris.

After her New York engagement, which begins October 5th, at the Madison Square Theatre, Grace George will present "Pretty Peggy" in only six cities, at the Columbia Theatre, Boston; the Grand Opera House, Chicago; the Garrick Theatre, Philadelphia; the National Theatre, Washington; Ford's Opera House, Baltimore, and Wyndham's New Theatre, London.

William A. Brady, and Joseph H. Grismer deny the report that "Way Down East" will be played as an English drama in London. No alterations whatever will be made in the production for its presentation at the Adelphi Theatre.

There is Americanism enough in "Richard Carvel," Edward Rose's dramatization of Winston Churchill's novel of the same name which is being used by Andrew Robson as a stellar vehicle to please the most captious. The period of the play, just before and the beginning of the war of the Revolution, is one of intense interest and the play itself is one of the most successful that the stage has seen in recent years. Mr. Robson's interpretation of the name part is reported to be an extremely clever piece of work showing the actor to be a past master in the technique and music of stagecraft which goes so far to make a perfect performance.

The whims and fads of our forefathers in early colonial days are made evident in "Richard Carvel," the production in which Andrew Robson is to star in and research have been applied "The Pit," and Channing Pollock, to the minutest details of even the who adapted the play from Frank furniture and upholsteries.

The North-Western road will begin this week to haul hundreds of loads of sand from Oconto, Wis., to Menominee, Mich., to fill in submerged territory, after which it will be used to raise sugar beets.

At the meeting of the directors of the Harriman lines next month in Ogden, Horace G. Hurt, president of the Union Pacific, will be installed acting general manager of the Southern Pacific.

Traffic officials of the trunk line roads deny the report that they are contemplating an advance of 10 per cent. in commodity rates on Jan. 1, or an increase in any general rates.

The cheap rate to Duluth and Ashland, Wis., from St. Paul was withdrawn simultaneously with the restoration of the $11.50 rate between Chicago and the Twin Cities.

The first ore train over the new branch of the Wisconsin & Michigan road from Norway and Quinnesec, Mich., to Peshtigo, Wis., was hauled Saturday night.

A meeting of transcontinental lines has been arranged for Oct. 16. Existing differences regarding military, naval and immigration rates will be discussed.

The Dunbar & Wausaukee road in upper Michigan has purchased two fifty-ton consolidated Baldwin engines which will be used in the log train service.

Regular train service on the Milwaukee road extension of the Southern Minnesota road from Woonsocket to Westington, S. D., will be started Oct. 4.

The Milwaukee road will erect a round house in its yards in the city of Fairbault, Minn.

The earnings of the Soo road for the third week in September show a decrease of $24,123.

BIG CAPITALISTS MAY GO UNDER

Two Men Credited With $25,000,000 Each Said to Be on Brink of Ruin.

New York, Oct. 1.—Alarming reports at a late hour on Wall street, centering about two men of great wealth and two trust companies, were of so disturbing a character as to wipe out the handsome advances made on the stock exchange and to cause all of the leading stocks to close with a substantial net loss.

The two capitalists said to be in trouble have been intimately associated in large enterprises for a number of years and both are generally credited with fortunes exceeding $25,000,000.

One of these men, it is said, was compelled to sell at private sale 10,000 shares of Delaware and Hudson railway stock at twenty-five points below the market. The ruling price of this stock on the exchange was 151. It is not actively traded in ordinary, being a gilt-edged investment security that is closely held. The buyers of the 10,000 shares were said to be Standard Oil interests.

The same capitalists, it is reported, had to part with a considerable block of Standard Oil stock, said to be 600 shares, also at private sale and to the same buyers.

The other capitalist, according to the report, made an appeal for assistance to J. P. Morgan, but without success.

For several days there have been vague hints concerning these two men and one of the trust companies with which they are closely identified, but not until yesterday did the reports take definite shape and become insistent. Nor was it until then that the second trust company was mentioned. That either company is dangerously involved because of the alleged embarrassments of the two capitalists is not believed. It was asserted that the troubles of the two men would be confined to themselves and to one or two of their associates in other cities. In other words, paper losses have been converted into actual losses in the case of these men.

The man who is said to have parted with his best investment stocks was reported to be very angry over the hard bargains made by the buyers. He has been seeking funds for the past four months.

THINK THEY WERE TRICKED

Steel Trust Employees Anxious About Their Stocks.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 1.—Since the United States Steel corporation stocks have been hit so hard the holders of 60,000 shares of preferred Steel stock among the employees have been uneasy. Hundreds of the workmen have been asking the bosses questions and these were finally handed up to the board of directors. The directors decided to kill two birds with one stone. First, they would satisfy their workmen that the investment was a good one, hence the offer to buy the stock next year. Then it was believed that by making such an offer the public could be induced to buy more freely of their stock. The circulars have been posted in all the mills and have had the effect of quieting the men who have been clamoring to dispose of their interests.

The workmen believe they were inveigled into buying the stock and trying up their money so they would not leave the employ of the company or strike if the wages were reduced. Many of the mill men, who have no

General Lee issued, on the 24th, a congratulatory order to the army of Virginia on Bragg's victory. An Atlanta dispatch says Bragg, in reply to Rosecrans' request for permission to bury his dead and relieve wounded, said he had enough Yankee prisoners to bury the dead, and Yankee surgeons to attend to the wounded.

Locomotives 300 and 121 which collided at Beloit last week were brought into the yards here yesterday. The former is a large Class K engine built by the Schenectady works, which has only been out of the local shops two months. Her cab and cow-catcher were completely wrecked, her rods broken, her cylinder dented and her frame bent. She is covered with mud and grass and is a very sorry looking spectacle. The switch engine had her end plate stove in and the retaining iron is wrinkled up like a glove. It will require a month or more to repair No. 300.

St. Paul Road. The directors' special was expected to arrive from Madison at 1:10 this afternoon. On board the train are President Earling, Manager Underwood, and other high officials of the road. The flag was hoisted in honor of their coming. It was expected that the train would stop at Janesville a half hour. The special is going over the new line to Chicago.

Engineer Harrison, who runs the time freight on the Mineral Point division, is laying off for a few days on account of the illness of his wife.

Brakeman H. J. Davey resumed work today after a few days illness. Chicago today.

Supt. Gibson, of Chicago, was here this morning and kept Operator Gesme busy calling on all operators of the division to send over the wires statements of their earnings from Jan. 1 to Sept. 1. He boarded the special this afternoon.

GENERAL RAILROAD NEWS.

The action of the Milwaukee road in running an excursion from Westington to Mitchell, S. D., on its new line from Woonsocket to Westington on Sunday aroused considerable antagonism, since Westington is a very strong church town.

ideas as to finance, especially stock transactions, are of the opinion that J. P. Morgan ran a sort of bucket-shop game a them—got them to take the shares, even when he did not possess the same, and that he is now buying the shares down around 60, after having sold them to the workers at $2½. They are firmly of the opinion that Mr. Morgan has control of the stock market and can do anything he wants with it.

Most of the 60,000 shares of stock is held by workers in the Pittsburg mills and there are few workers among the Carnegie employees who did not subscribe for shares up to the full amount allotted them.

LICENSE FEE IS FOR ALL TAXES

Supreme Court Makes an Important Decision Regarding Land Leased by Street Railways.

Street railway corporations lease property from individuals and estates, and the property being used in the operation of the railway are to pay only their license tax, estimated on their gross earnings, and none of the other land or other real estate leased and used by the company is subject to taxation as belonging to the corporation, or individual, or estate, all being covered for the purposes of taxation by the license fee tax paid on the gross earnings of the corporation. This is the effect of a decision of the supreme court in the case of the Merrill Railway & Lighting Co., J. N. Cotter et al., respondents, against the city of Merrill et al., appellants. The company leased a piece of property from the Cotter estate, and used it in the operation of the street railway. The owners of the property had stipulated in the lease that the company should pay all taxes levied on the property. The company alleged before the board of review that the assessment on this particular piece of property should be remitted because the license fee tax paid by the company, according to the statute, covered all taxes levied on the property of the corporation and upon all property necessarily used by it in the operation of its business. The trial court decided in favor of this position and the judgment is affirmed by the supreme court. The opinion is written by Justice Dodge. He says that the fee paid on the gross earnings of the company is intended to cover all the taxes chargeable against the company upon all the property necessarily used in the operation of the business.

CITY DEATH ROLL

Mrs. Joseph Page of the town of Rock died at half past seven o'clock Tuesday night. She was forty-five years of age. Deceased is survived by a husband and four children—Harry, William, and Myrtle Page, who resided at home, and Mrs. Sidney Hurd of Milton. The funeral will be held at 10 a. m. Friday morning. Interment will be made at the Edgerton cemetery.

Jessie M. Lowry

Jessie M. Lowry, aged thirteen years, daughter of David Lowry, died of diabetes at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Wilcox, No. 5 Bennett street, at six o'clock last evening. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Crall

The little six days' old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Crall of the town of Center died Sunday night. Owing to the illness of the mother the funeral was private and was held at the home at 5 o'clock Monday, conducted by Rev. B. M. Wetzel; interment in Center cemetery.

ORDER RESTORED AT THE SOO

Three Hundred Men Paid Off and Several Hundred More to Be Discharged.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Oct. 1.—Mounted infantry and Canadian militia are patrolling the Canadian Soo and the property of the Consolidated Lake Superior company. Three hundred men employed in the woods at Wilde arrived last night in charge of soldiers, received their pay checks, were given tickets for several meals and departed without causing trouble.

Twenty-five soldiers are guarding the dynamite magazine of the company, several miles from the city.

There are 500 or 600 men the company has yet to bring in. These will be given pay slips and provided with several meals, and advised to accept employment elsewhere. No further trouble is feared.

THE CRISIS IN HUNGARY

Count Hedervary Resigns the Premiership—Situation Serious.

Budapest, Oct. 1.—After formally announcing his resignation of the premiership in the lower house of the Hungarian diet, Count Hedervary asked the house to adjourn pending the constitution of a new government. Immediately afterward Count Hedervary, with the other ministers, left the house. The president, Count Apponyi, however, ruled that the resignation of the cabinet was not sufficient ground for an adjournment, and invited the house to continue its work.

It is feared that the Austrian advisers of the crown will regard the defeat of Count Hedervary as a personal affront to the emperor, and apprehensions are felt regarding the outcome.

Says Canada Misconstrues.

London, Oct. 1.—Hannu Taylor of counsel for the United States at this morning's session of the Alaskan boundary commission continued his argument dealing with the international law phase of the dispute. He declared that the construction put by the Canadians on various terms employed in the controversy was not justified by international law, especially the reference to the general trend of the coast and the mention made of canals.

Mr. Taylor concluded his argument yesterday afternoon and Sir Edward Carson, the solicitor general, followed. He confined himself largely to arguing that the exact wording of the treaty supported the British contentions.
